

INFERNAL DAMNATION IV PRESS RELEASE

Arcane Promotions are proud to present the fourth annual Infernal Damnation Festival. This year as headliner we have one of the most extreme bands ever to rise from the UK scene, and in a very rare live performance Anaal Nathrakh are set to lay waste to London with their hellish necro assault.

Main support comes from Italy's Handful of Hate who have been terrorizing the European scene since 1993, and make a welcome return to London with their extreme, blistering black metal.

Panchryisia from Belgium are set to spew forth their brand of harsh black metal across the capital in support of their awesome split album (with fellow countrymen Iconoclasm) 'The Ultimate Crescendo of Hell'.

Thirteenth Sign are one of the best UK bands we have heard in a very, very long time! Their savage thrash assault cuts like a razor to the wrist, do not miss this band! With the new extreme metal band Hades Lab featuring Jon and Ben of Gorerotted expect nothing more than pure sickness.

The Reckoning from Belgium will be perhaps better known in the UK as Infernal Legion from their stunning appearance at the first Infernal Damantion festival, so you know what to expect from them – razor sharp black thrash metal of the highest quality!

London based thrashers Descent will be supporting their new album 'This Violent Reality'.

Frostmoon Eclipse from Italy make their UK debut with their unique style of black metal with acoustic stylings.

Opening the hostilities are Brighton's Echovirus, one of the most promising bands currently emerging from the melodic death metal scene – be sure to catch them on stage at 2:30!
